Dream Along With Me

Passing through these doors for four years—
Through knowledge to reality—
I build many a fantasy.
Come.
Dream along with me.

Many students picture (led by
The guidance of our faculty)
When teachers they themselves will be.
Come.
Dream along with me.

Our alma mater, J. H. S.,
Part of our hearts will always be.
As we recall days so happy,
Come.
Dream along with me.

Our high school life is full of fun.
We strive to break monotony
With many an activity.
Come.
Dream along with me.

Part of school is the field of sports.
We cheer our teams on heartily,
Whether it's defeat or victory.
Come.
Dream along with me.

The combining of work and play
Will help us adjust more easily—
When we leave this world of study.
Come.
Dream along with me.

Junior Hi is a time for growth;
Young people change from a life, carefree,
As they head toward maturity.
Come.
Dream along with me.

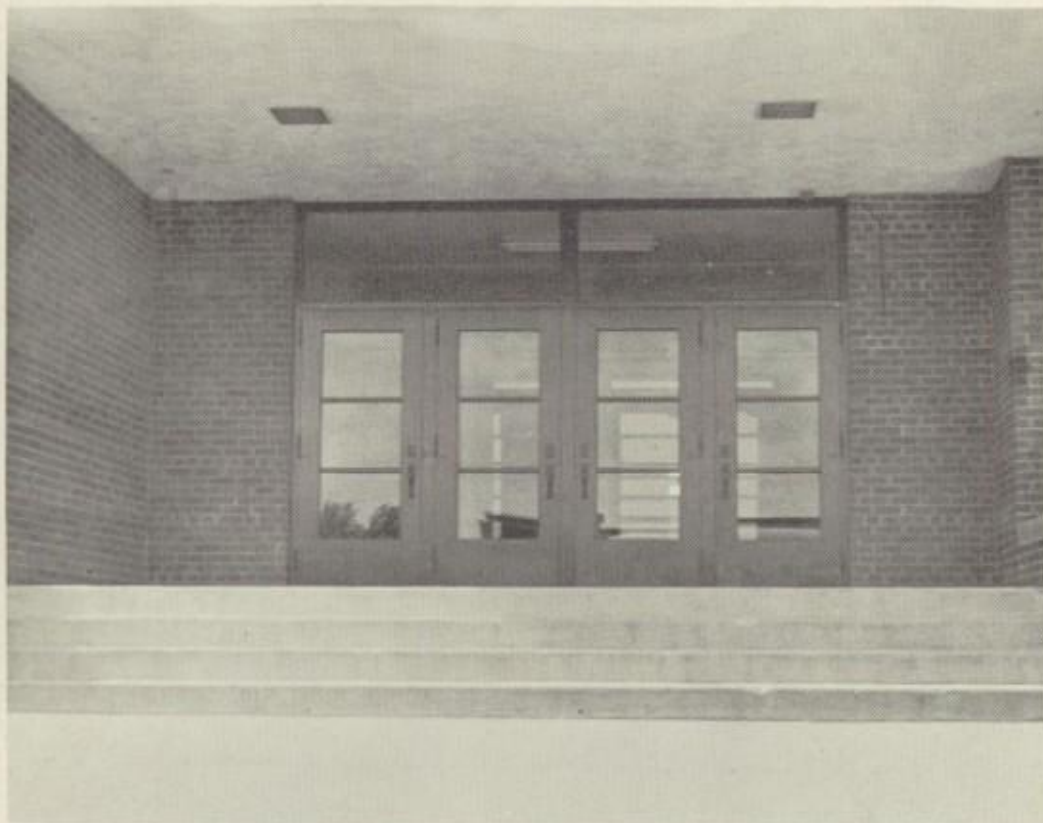

Every salesman dreams of an ad.
Without these, our book could not be.
They help our budget—look and see.
Come.
Dream along with me.

The Student's Home Away From Home

The east entrance to the high school is a very familiar sight to all Jackson students and faculty members.

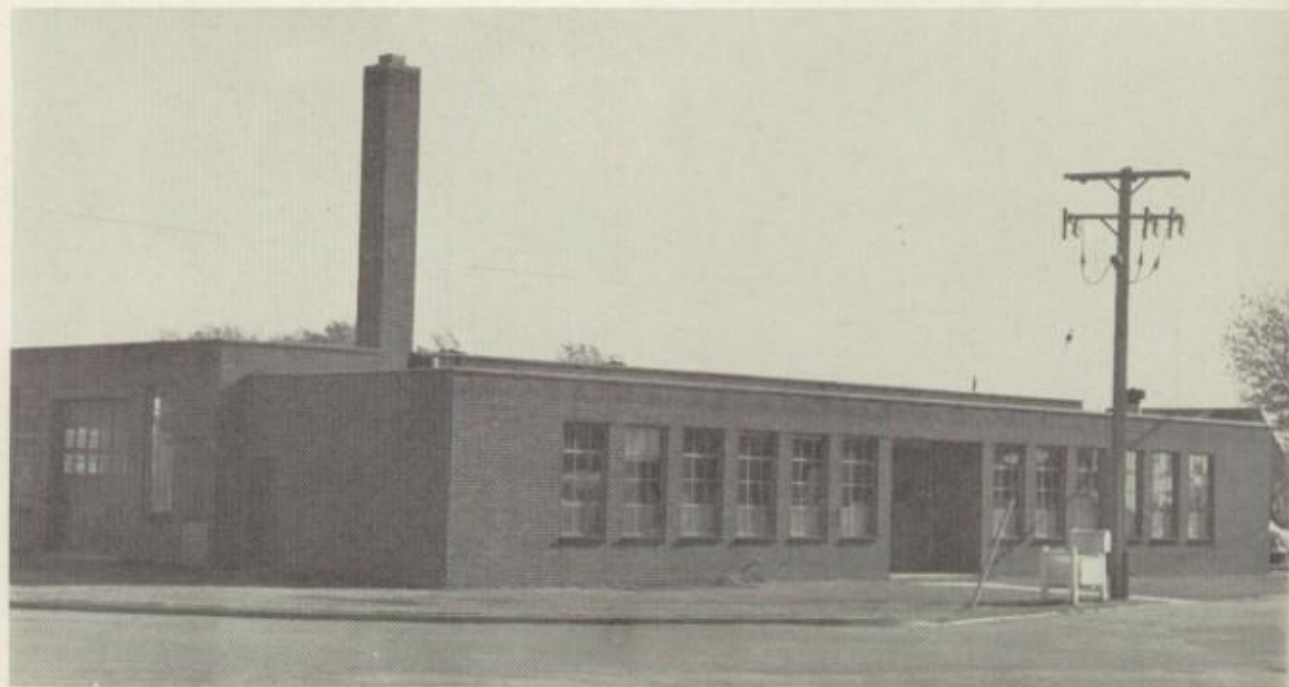

We open these doors each morning as we enter into a day of confusion, toil, trouble, and work mixed with fun, fellowship, and pleasant experiences.

Faculty and students alike express a sigh of relief when we close these doors behind us and leave the activities of the day and go home to relax.

We will never forget the opportunities that these doors have opened to us.

The junior high school is the northwest wing of the high school building. It is in this building that the students, through the guidance of the faculty, lay the foundation for the construction of their entire life.

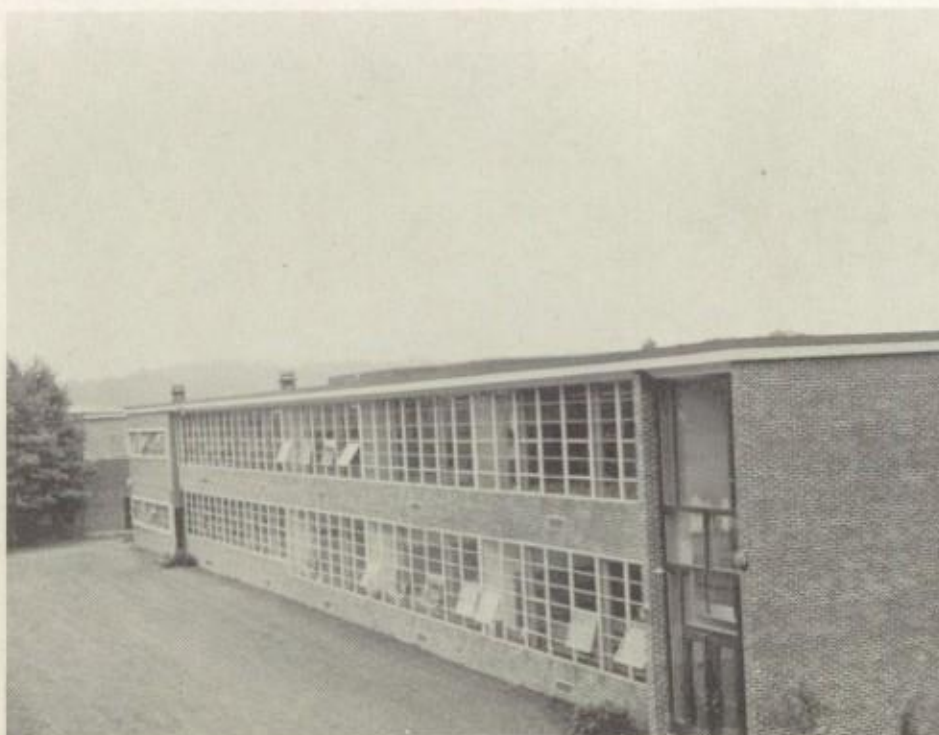

As soon as the new building is finished, the junior high students will move out of the northwest wing and it will be used to relieve the crowded conditions in the high school section.

The shop building and garage are located in a separate building just east of the school. This building houses the equipment and machines used in the shop and industrial arts classes.

In addition to these classes part of the history and literature classes are held in this building due to the insufficient space available in the high school building.

This building has become a "second home" to a good many students and faculty members.

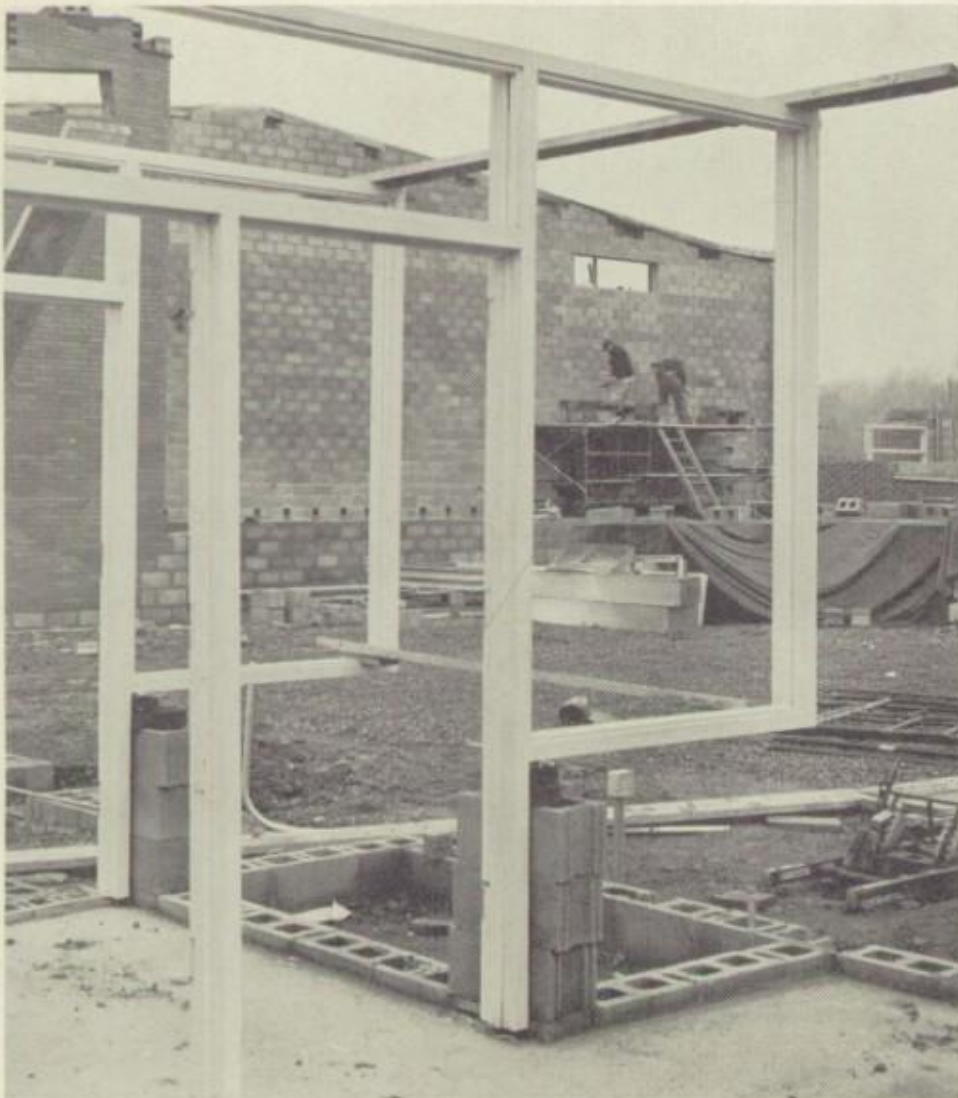

Commonly known as the "Junior High Entrance" these doors are a familiar sight to both junior and senior high students. Each day many pupils enter and leave the school by way of this entrance.

We also use it when coming to the activities held in the fieldhouse and auditorium—such as basketball games, class plays, and concerts, among others.

The new junior high building under construction, when finished, is to be a self-supporting 18-room unit, practically independent of the rest of the school. Located west of the older buildings, it will house all the junior high students, leaving the present junior high rooms open for the ever increasing number of students enrolled in our school each year.

Construction of the new building was held up for some time due to the lengthy steel dispute. After the steel strike was over the construction efforts went into high gear, so that the much-needed structure could be completed for the 1960-61 school year. The junior high students are eagerly awaiting the time when they will be able to move into their own building.

The Backbone Of The School

This is an appropriate picture to begin an introduction. Each school day begins with the familiar sight of students stepping from school busses. As this sight introduces each day, so do these next few pages introduce this yearbook.

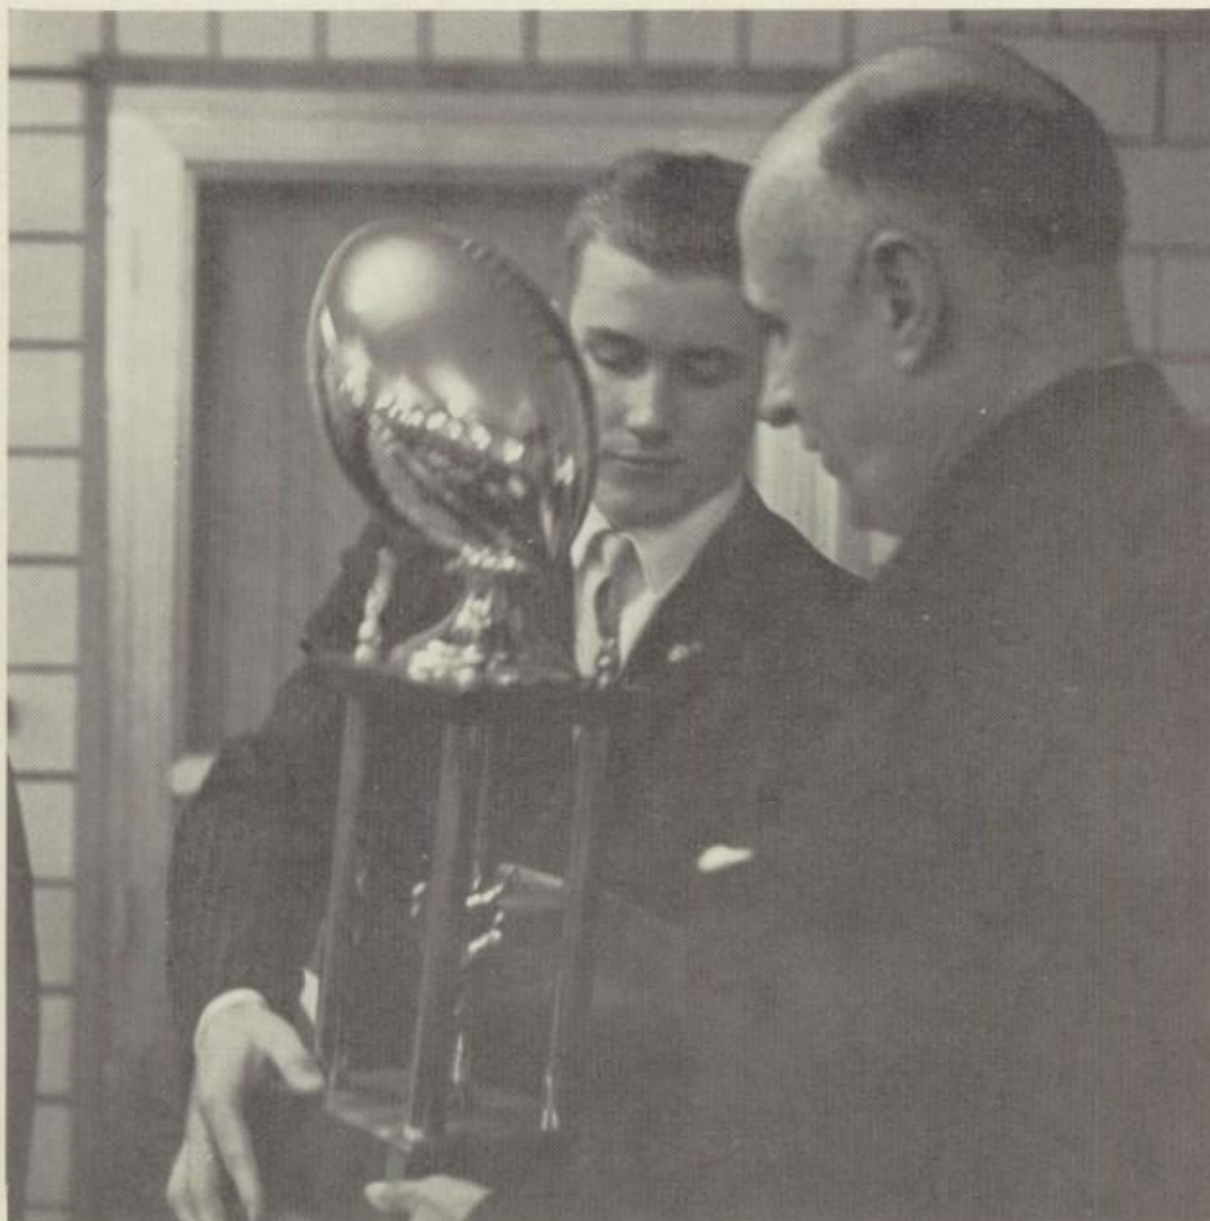

Each Christmas the girls of the home economics classes make cookies and other baked goods for the teachers' tea. This social get-together is held for the purposes of promoting better relationship among the faculty members. Our teachers work together to educate and to guide their students.

The primary purpose of school is education. Here each student gains knowledge he will carry with him the rest of his life. This division of the annual is devoted to the individual students who make up Jackson Memorial High School.

Extra-curricular activities have been organized to further develop students' interests and ability to get along with others. To encourage hard, diligent work, there two societies which honor those who excell in the different fields.

Sports play an important part in high school life. Interest in the actions of the various teams, whether as a player or as a fan, helps to develop school spirit. Through school spirit, one takes a more active interest in his own relationship with the school.

Student life involves many varied pastimes. One example of students' different choices in activities is shown by the display of baked goods set up by the girls in the home economics classes.

Students Are Influenced By Various Activities

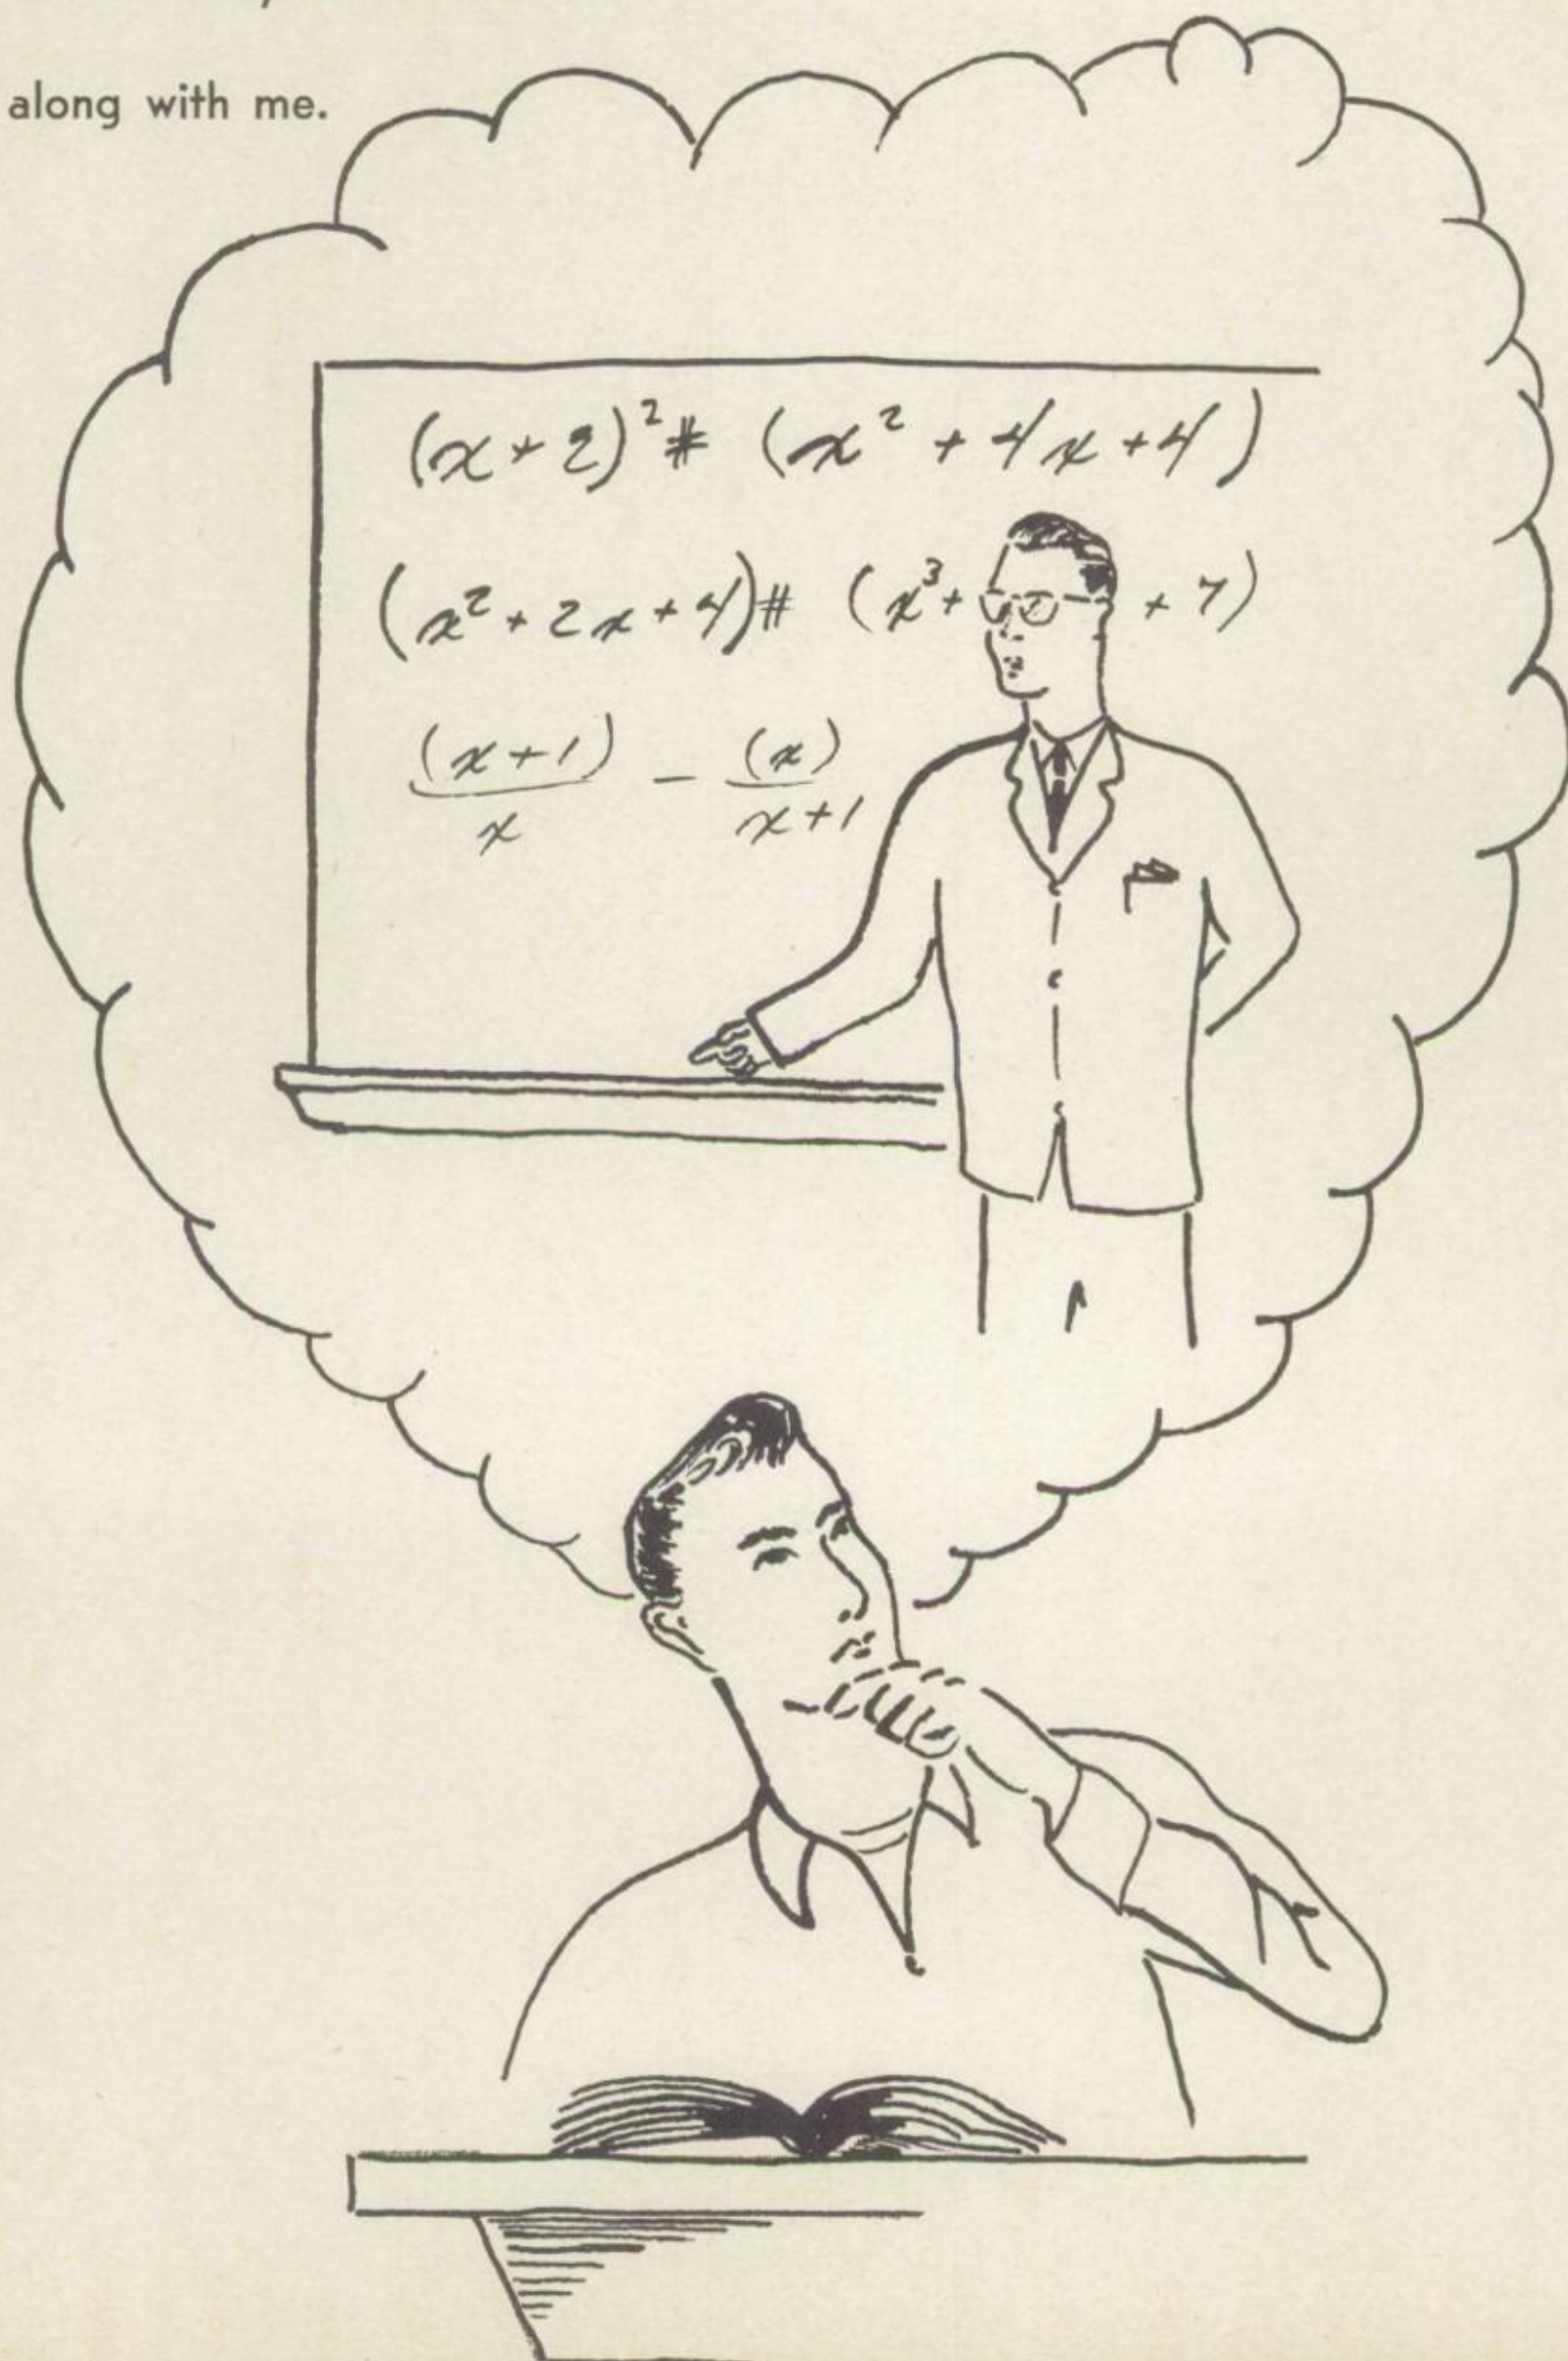

The junior high will soon move into a new building. These students will receive both more independence and more responsibility, from which will develop well-rounded and mature young citizens in the community. These youths will be ready for high school life.

Very few people realize the great cost of printing a school yearbook. The annual staff both cuts down on expenses and benefits the reader by offering advertising space. The ad salesmen contact the local firms, and carry the brunt of the selling for the staff.

SENIORS

GAYLE GRANT	Secretary
DAVE HOSTETLER	President
TIM TILTON	Treasurer
DAN SECKLER	Vice President

Entering Jackson High as freshmen, the Class of 1960 soon became acquainted with high school life. We took an active part in school activities, and members gained recognition in scholarship, leadership, and athletics, adding to the prestige of Jackson. As a class, we showed great school spirit and willingness to work in making all activities successful. We enjoyed such events as our pizza party-dance, car washes, concerts, assemblies, and many others. The English Literature students will never forget their evening at the Players' Guild, while the commercial students will look back on their various plant tours with fond recollection. Football and basketball games seemed especially thrilling this last year. We were plagued with a battery of tests, which revealed knowledge gained over the past twelve years of school. Climaxing four years of work and fun, the Seniors were honored at the Junior-Senior Prom, Class Day, Baccalaureate, and their ultimate goal, Commencement. Whether, after graduation, we pursue higher education or secure an occupation, we will carry with us many happy memories of our high school years.

MR. LAWRENCE GATCHELL and MR. JAMES COLSON

The Senior Class wishes to express its sincere appreciation to Mr. Lawrence Gatchell and Mr. James Colson, who became our advisors this year. Their excellent advice, understanding, and patience have guided us through our final year, and we are grateful.

The club also sponsors several basketball teams, which play the Hi-Y teams of other schools. This year the senior team had a particularly good season.

The advisor for the Jr.-Sr. Hi-Y group was Harry Dutka and the Freshman-Sophomore group advisor is Victor Fenton.

QUILL AND SCROLL

"Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." This is the motto of Quill and Scroll, the International Honorary Society for High School Journalists.

The organization was formed for the purpose of promoting research and conducting surveys to determine the types of publication best suited to high schools. Also, to aid in standardizing instruction in the fields.

Members are chosen on basis of general scholastic standing and superior work accomplished in some phase of journalistic or creative endeavor.

The advisor for Quill and Scroll is Mrs. Virginia Bond.

Betty Ann Horst, Linda Ulm, Carol Pritz, Gail Hopkins, Marta Alexander, Pennie Keller.

GIRLS' ENSEMBLE

The music that this ensemble presented at the holiday assemblies made us feel more deeply the true meaning of Christmas and Easter. The group worked very diligently and enthusiastically under the direction of Mrs. Elma Rohrbaugh.

They participated in several contests and received excellent and superior ratings. They also sing at various organization meetings.

JUNIOR-SENIOR Y-TEENS

Under the leadership of our new advisor, Miss Joan Richie and the president, Pat McCormick, the Junior-Senior Club was very active this year. A rally with the Massillon and Navarre Y-Teens, the hanging of the greens at Christmas in the Massillon Y.W.C.A., and a trip to Applecreek Hospital were just a few of the activities enjoyed by the members. In all of their activities the Y-Teens try to fulfill an ideal of Christian personal and social living.

The social highlights of the year were the two formal dances the club held. The first was the annual Y-Teen Formal on November 27 which is held jointly with the Navarre and Massillon Y-Teens. Our own Y-Teens Formal was May 14 at the Y.W.C.A. in Canton, Ohio.

THE BEAR FACTS STAFF

The main aim of Jackson's paper staff, better known to the students as the Bear Facts Staff, was to keep all the Jacksonites up to date on the latest happenings around our school.

Two of the features of the paper which received special attention from the student body were the Senior Interviews, and the Ideal Boy and Girl Contest.

The 1959-1960 issues of the "Bear Facts" were edited under the direction of Gayle Grant, editor-in-chief; and Mrs. Virginia Bond, who served as an advisor.

Through the efforts of the staff, the students and faculty members of Jackson were kept well informed throughout the year.

In Writings and Pictures

The 1960 SCOOP has many new and different characteristics this year. An effort has been made to eliminate or change many of the formal posed pictures and to include more pictures of school life and events throughout the book. Each summer we have our book rated and criticized by a judge. We have tried to follow up the helpful suggestions given by these judges, in order to produce a yearbook with which the entire student body will be pleased.

Planning for the book began before school started. It continued through the fall while pictures were being taken and the advertising was being sold. After the main plan of the book was established, the staff began drawing up the pages and writing copy for the various organizations.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

This was a very successful year for the Future Teachers of America, a club organized for those students interested in teaching as a vocation.

Many interesting and different types of programs were planned. The main program of the club is the substitute teaching the members do for the grade school teachers.

Mrs. Mildred Ramga is the club's advisor.

FUTURE NURSES OF AMERICA

The purpose of the Future Nurses Club is to help students who are interested in nursing learn more about the different fields and opportunities that are available in medicine.

Programs included films, tours, lectures, and a candlelight ceremony in which members received their F.N.A. pins.

The advisor for the club is Mrs. Lois Baxter.

FRENCH CLUBS

Students who take French I and French II have the opportunity to learn more about the customs, traditions, and languages of France through the French Clubs.

The Clubs hold monthly meetings, invite speakers, and have discussions and various other activities that help the students become better acquainted with the language and country.

In the spring, aided by costumes, decorations, and imagination, the members take "a trip to Paris" at the annual French banquet.

Being a member of N.H.S. is the greatest academic honor possible in the school.

An impressive candle lighting ceremony was held on March 21 as twenty-four juniors and two seniors were inducted. The second year members explained the four principles of N.H.S. and the new members were given the pledge and presented their pins. The advisor to the society is Mr. Cecil Ramga.

While Gayle Grant searches for the junior she is to tap, Gayle Ferguson pins a yellow rose on Louise Fierstos, signifying admission in N. H. S.

The search over, Gayle taps a proud, beaming Sandy Decker.

The oath is administered to the new members by Pat McCormick.

Mr. Ramga congratulates Bill Thackwell upon his admission to National Honor Society and awards him his pin.

The President of N.H.S., Tim Tilton, greets the audience and explains to them the principles of the society.

LATIN CLUB

Best of luck in the future Jay

All Latin students look forward to the day which comes once a month when studying is gloriously disrupted for another Latin club meeting. Membership is open to all Latin students. This year a new division of the club, Latin III, was added to Latin I and II. Their major project was taking a trip to Cleveland to see the movie, "Ben Hur."

LATIN III CLUB

This year, for the first time in many years, Jackson has had sufficient students interested in a third year of Latin to form a class. The emphasis was placed on the reading and appreciation of Roman literature rather than grammar, as in the preceding two years. The Third Year Latin Club also attended "Ben-Hur" with the other two clubs.

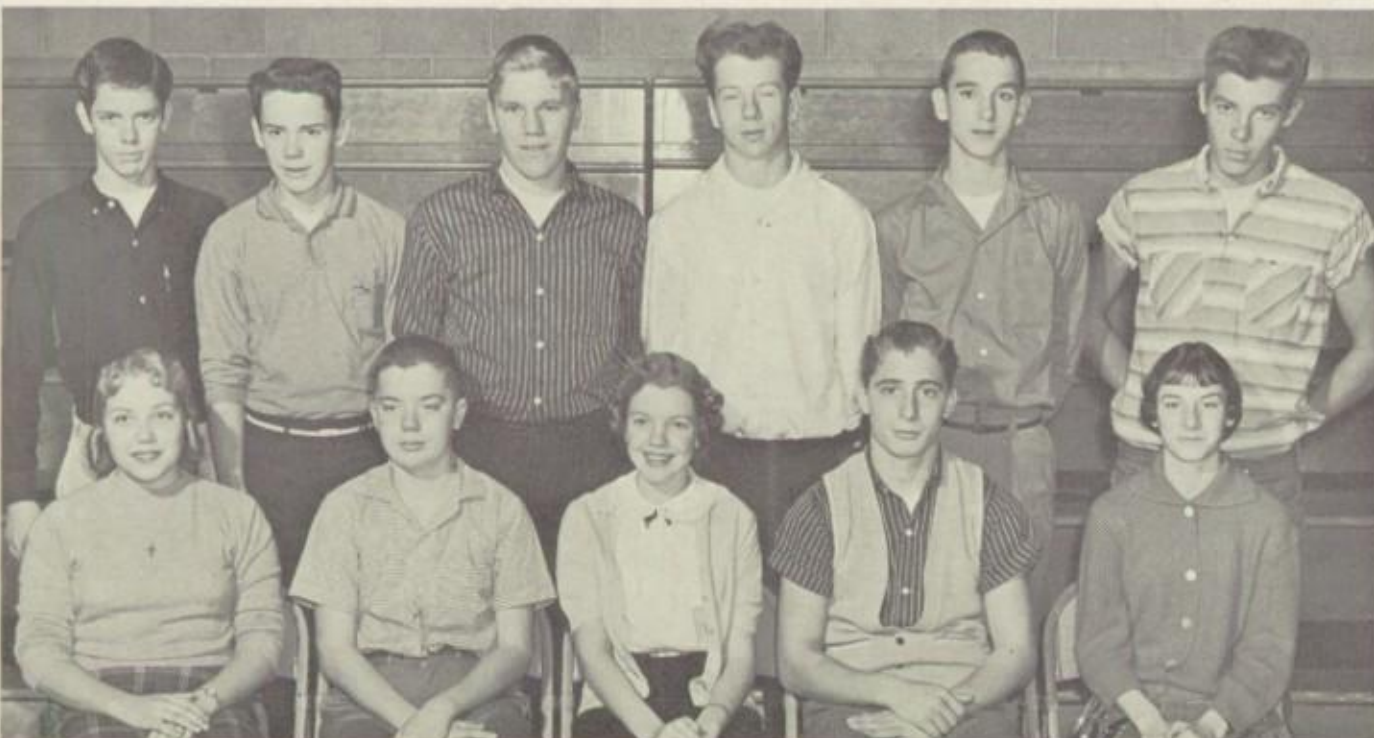

LIBRARIANS

Any student who works in the library as a librarian may belong to the Librarians' Club. The main duties of the members are helping students find books and reference material, checking out books, and helping the Librarian take care of the library. At Christmas the members sold "marble" jewelry to raise money for a swimming party, their main social event of the year.

The advisor of the Librarians' Club is Miss Joan Richie.

BAND

This year Jackson has a senior band of which they should be especially proud. Our band has been honored by being asked to perform at several important events. One such event was the North-South All-Star Football Game in August, where the band executed brilliantly a half-time show for the football fans. The band also marched at the All-American Soap Box Derby Downs at Akron.

The band does a lot of hard work during football season preparing for our own half-time shows. Their work however, doesn't end at the end of football season. They begin preparing for their annual Spring Concert, basketball rallies, assemblies, and also participate in the County Music Festival and various clinics in other cities.

The band is under the direction of Mr. Clarence A. Gates. Mr. Gates spends many extra hours working with the band.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

A newly formed club this year is Girls' Athletic Association. This club promotes athletics among girls. The members participated in various events.

In March, Hoover High held a basketball tournament in which Central Catholic, Jackson, and Hoover took part. April featured basketball games between the freshman and sophomore girls, and the juniors and seniors. Several "playdays" were held in conjunction with other schools during May.

Mrs. Lois Baxter is the G.A.A. advisor.

THE GREAT BIG DOORSTEP

When the Crochet family of Grass Margin, La., fished a fancy doorstep out of the Mississippi, it changed all their lives. The steps made their shack look even more rundown, and Mrs. Crochet now longed for a new home.

The Commodore supported his family rather haphazardly by digging ditches, when his stomach wasn't upset from overeating at his employers' homes. A lack of money presented many problems until a florist from New Orleans bought Mrs. Crochet's field of lillies for a wedding she was catering.

Mrs. Crochet scolds Elna and Fleece as they rush to the Commodore's side to listen to his "cricks and sirens."

The Seniors presented "The Great Big Doorstep" on November 21 and 22, 1959.

Resenting Tobin's taking an orange away from him and presenting it to Evvie, Tayo slugs him with a brick.

VARSIITY

Retaining the Class "AA" League Football Championship and having a string of victories were the aims of the Jackson Polar Bears as they opened their 1959 football season.

Under the tutelage of their highly successful coach, Bob Fife, practice opened in August. The graduation of several outstanding players meant that in a few short weeks much work had to be done. Returning lettermen were Rohrer, Tilton, Weimer, Ney, Hostetler, Sturm, Guest, Welty, Bertoni, Hite, Burtnett, Keifer, Boron, Stuhldreher, Blackstone, Williams, Stoner, Floom, and Longbrake.

The '59 season opened with a loss to Canton South. The following week the Polar Bear machine went into action, defeating Orrville 14-6. Then, revenging last year's upset, the Central Catholic Crusaders, in a game highlighted by a drenching rain, defeated our Bears 16-6.

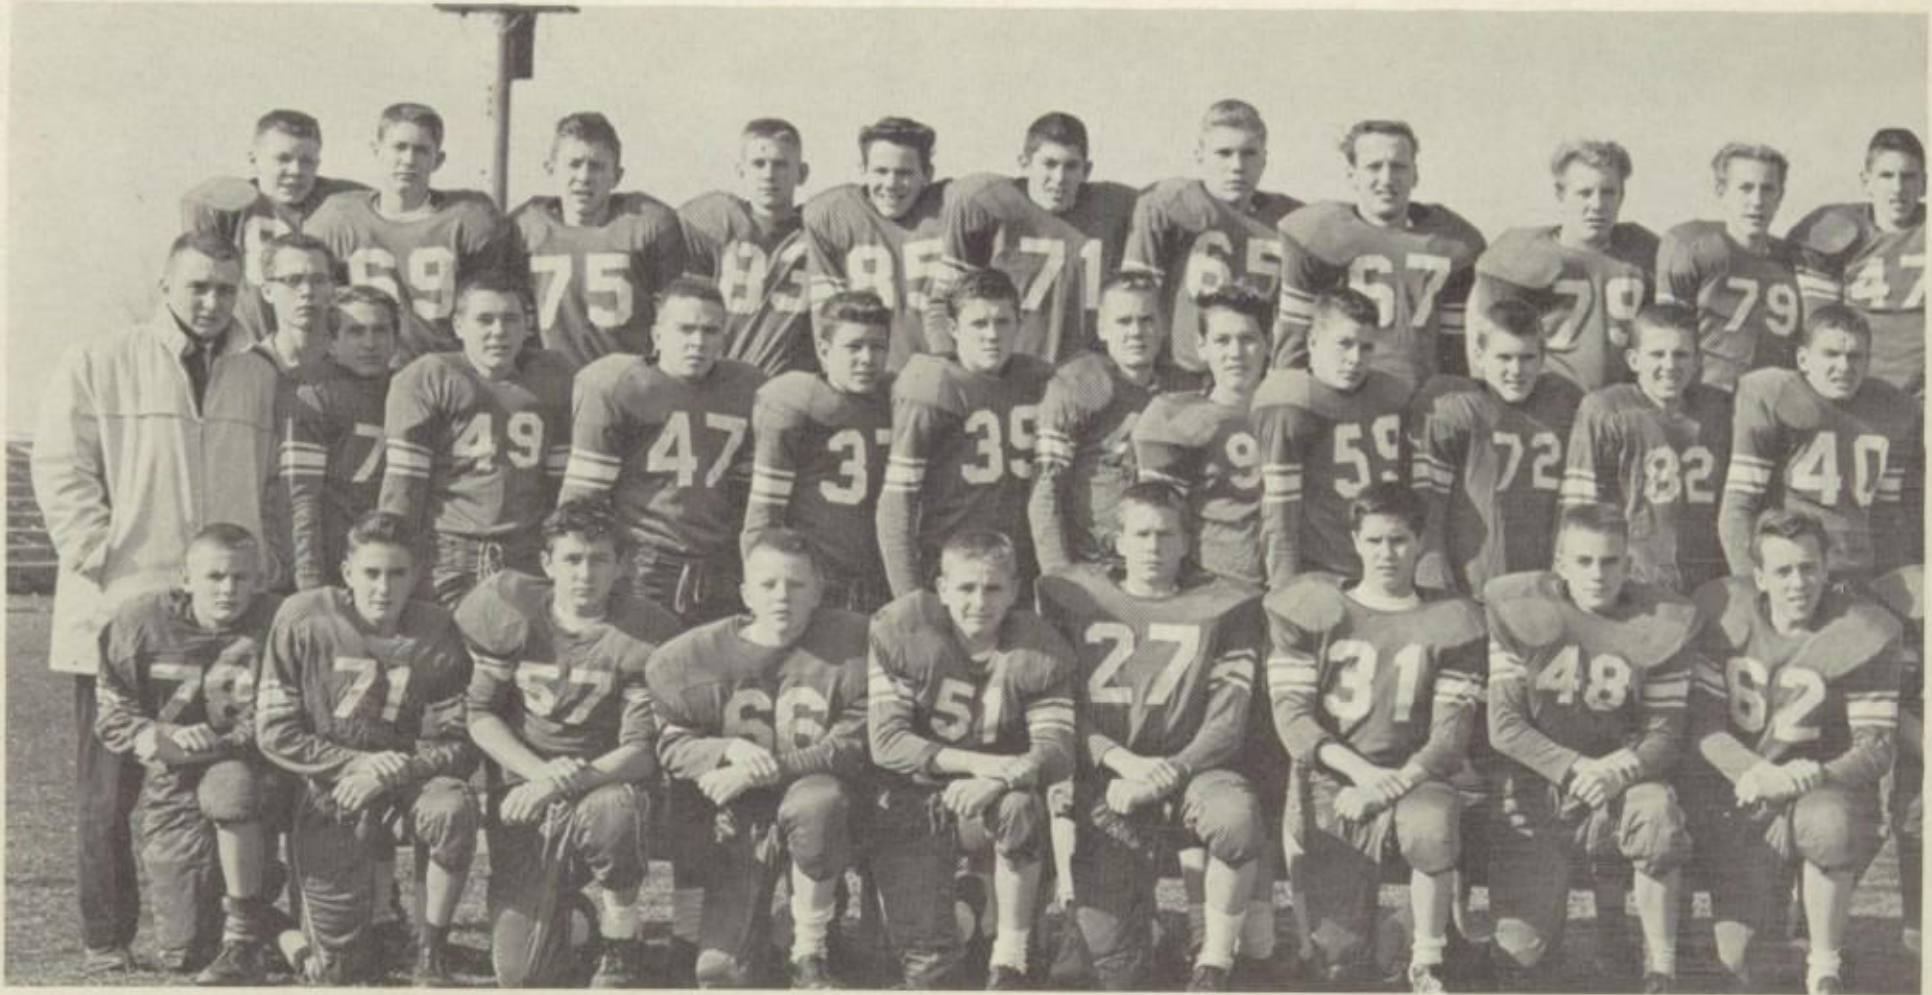

After this defeat, the Polar Bears went on the rampage and won six consecutive games. Defeated were Glenwood, 6-0; Sandy Valley, 30-0; Northwest, 26-6; Perry, 26-0; North Canton Hoover, 6-0; and Lisbon, 30-0. The season was finished with a respectable 7-2 record.

One of the most exciting games of the season was when the Polar Bears, rated as the underdogs, upset our arch rivals, North Canton Hoover. Our team was unscored upon in league play, and we again retained the Class "AA" League Championship.

The season was climaxed by the annual Football Banquet held at the Perry Grange.

Much credit must be given to our fine coach, Bob Fife, his staff, and the 1959 football team. We are proud to have them as representatives of Jackson High School.

The Reserve Team Spent the Season Gaining Knowledge

An essential part of the team are the managers. Left to right: Brad Harter, Jim O'Connor, Jay Brower.

Several "Ghostly Grizzlies" make like the Three Stooges.

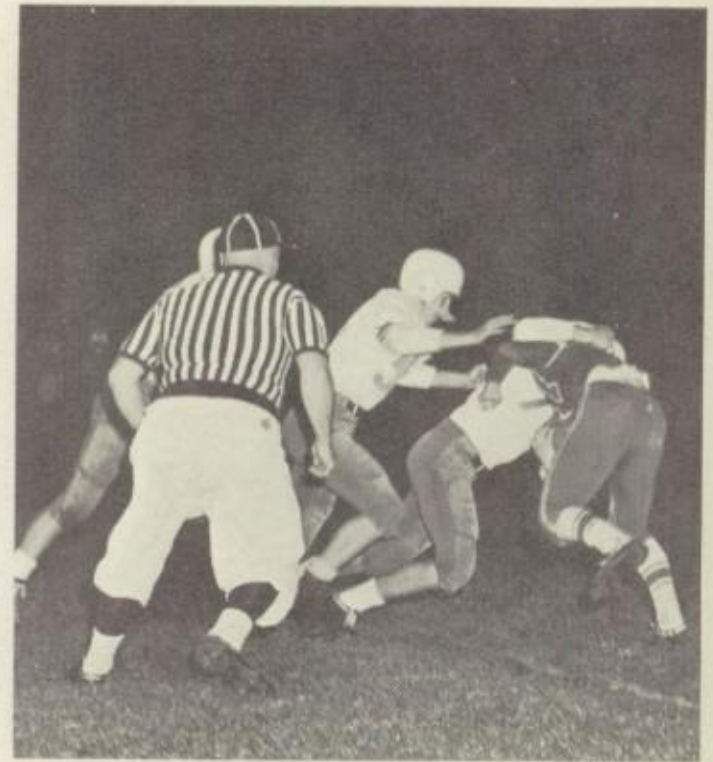

Hail, hail, the gang's all here . . . to lend a hand in this Eagle-Polar Bear fray.

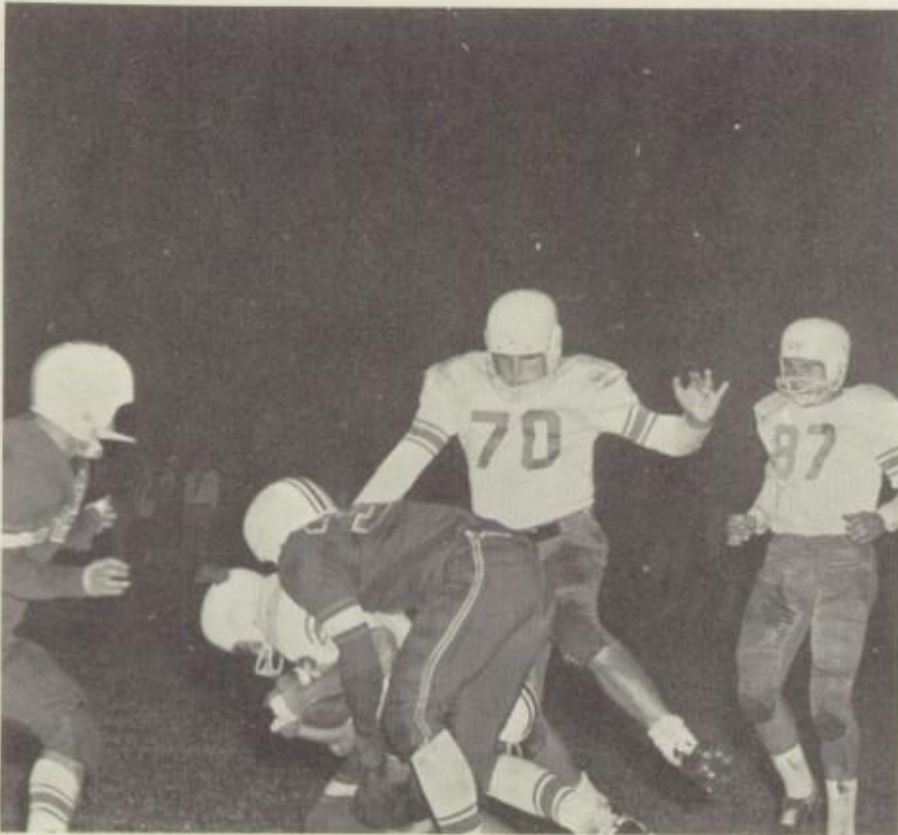

Tired players take time out as the second string takes over to gain valuable experience for future games.

With the aid of Tom Eckert, George Welty drives on toward that goal line.

Hey, fellows, the line forms on the right! This Glenwood Eagle isn't going anywhere with three Polar Bears on the scene to nail him.

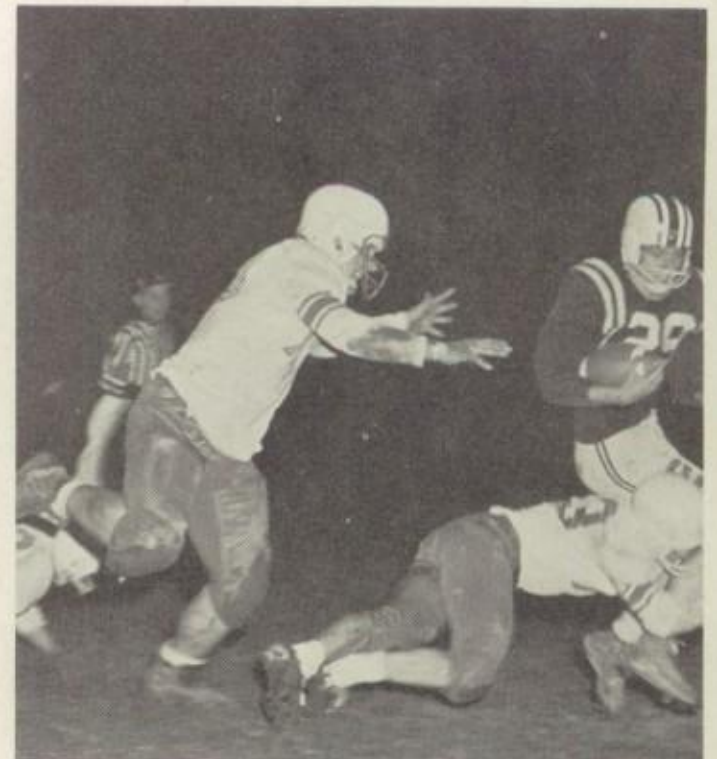

Welty is finally dragged down by a Glenwood player, but has made it for a first down.

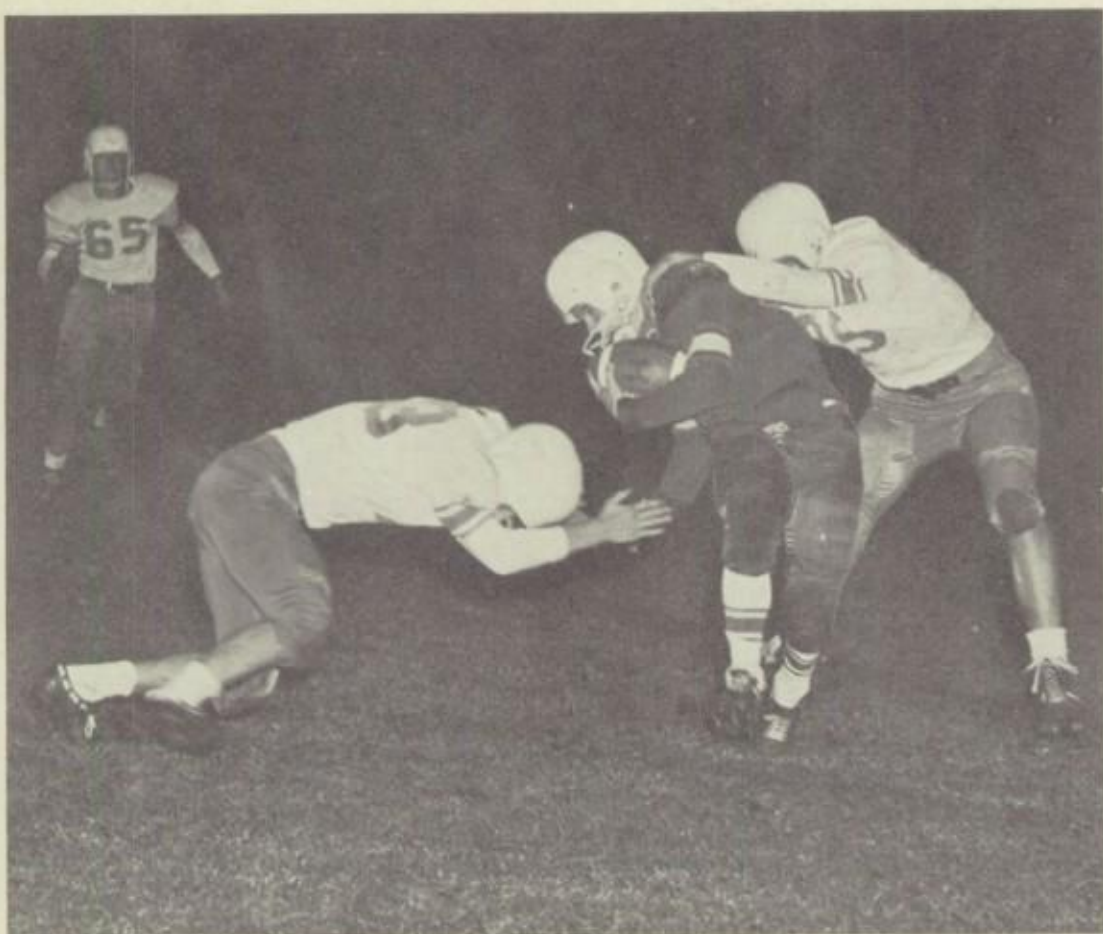

The way cleared for him by the expert blocking of his teammates, the ball carrier, Welty, toes right through the middle for 6 points.

This Eagle doesn't stand much of a chance as Hostetler and Ulm rush in to head him off.

Another Panther bites the dust as the Polar Bears go into action.

"Glad to meet you, friend," says one Jackson player as another tries to help this Glenwood player off with his coat.

This poor lad looks a little nervous as he sees two rough, tough Polar Bears charging down on him!

Glenwood found out that these Bears just don't give up!

"If you'll just give us that ball, we wouldn't have to go through this, you know!"

On Dad's Night the fathers of the players are honored in pre-game ceremonies. Seniors pictured with their dads are Tim Tilton, Jack Weimer, and Jack Hite.

In this shot from the Jackson-Glenwood game, George Welty appears to be a little outnumbered, but he made it for 6 points!

Our Homecoming Ceremony Adds Glamor To The

Co-captain Ned Guest presents the Queen with a dozen white mums after she has been chauffeured onto the field.

With a happy smile, Miss Grant is crowned "Homecoming Queen of 1959" by the other co-captain, Dave Hostetler.

Reigning as Football Queen this year was a vivacious brunette, Miss Gayle Grant. Chosen by the Reserve and Varsity teams, Miss Grant was crowned in a special pre-game ceremony before the Jackson-Glenwood game.

Serving as her attendants were the Misses Nadine Halter, a senior; Sue Schiltz, a junior; Faith Scott, a sophomore; and Elaine Garvin, a freshman.

The team presented the Queen and her court a royal gift by defeating 6-0 our league rival, Glenwood. After the game a Homecoming Dance was held at the school in the Queen's honor. This dance is especially known as a reunion for past students of Jackson, and by watching the activities of their former "underclassmen," they re-live their high school days.

At the end of the ceremony the Queen is chauffeured from the field.

The Crowd at All Games in Spirit, Sportsmanship, and Cheers

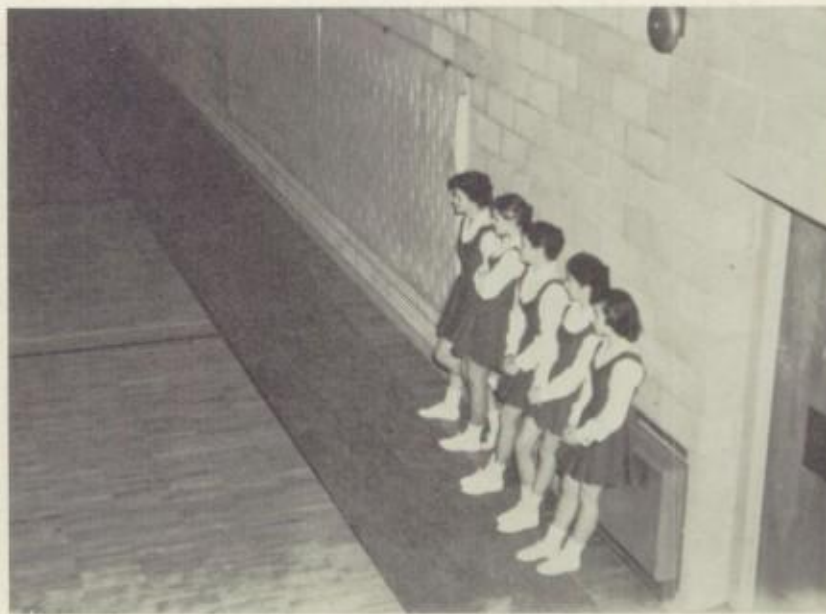

RESERVE CHEERLEADERS: Annette Bender, Eleanor Etter, Linda Blackstone, Jackie Brumbaugh.

We give much credit to our "pepettes" for the spirit and interest that they have created in the field of sports. Under the excellent supervision of Mrs. Lois "Mom" Baxter, the five Varsity and four Reserve cheerleaders have kept quite busy, working hard to show our teams how much we back them. The cheerleaders are in charge of the rallies and make up new cheers, chants, and skits. It has been with their guidance that the student body has encouraged the teams to the successful seasons that they have had.

The "Fabulous Five" line up for the Alma Mater which traditionally closes our rallies.

The cheerleaders take a break while a coach is speaking to the student body.

VARSITY

We had a thrilling season, even though this year's basketball record doesn't appear to be impressive. League competition was especially rough, with all the teams closely matched. In the Canton Sectional Tournament, we lost in the first round, when we were defeated by Canton McKinley.

Letters were given to all Varsity players and other awards were given at the basketball banquet which was held March 27 at the Fulton House. At this banquet Rich Davis was named Most Valuable Player by WHBC.

Reserve and Freshmen players received their awards at this banquet also.

----------------	-----------------	----------------	--------------

Jackson's Happiness Girls, alias Rich Davis, Ted Habony, and Bill Forsythe, add to the merriment of one of our weekly rallies.

These Polar Bear expressions should be enough to scare any team away!

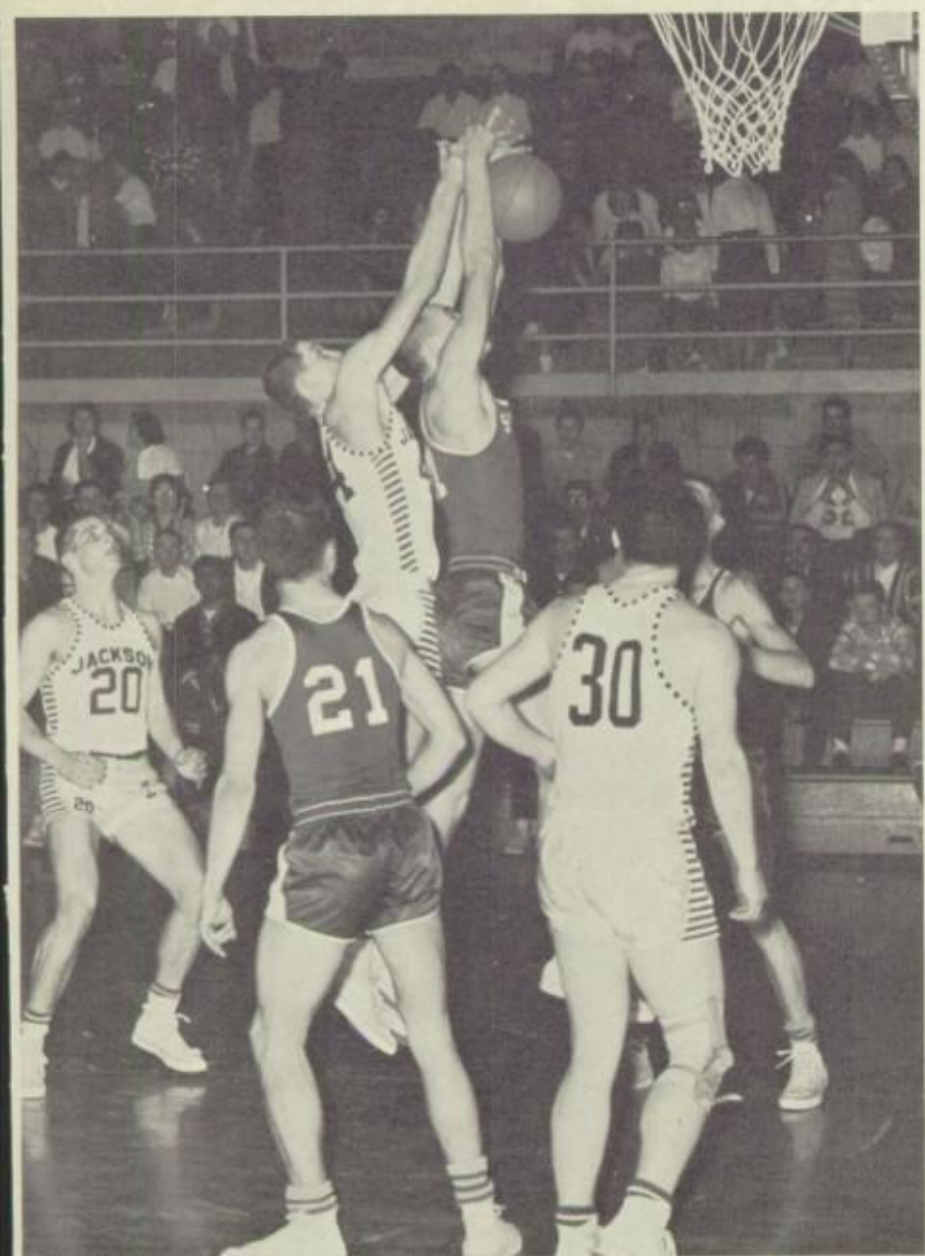

Longbrake fakes his guard out as he stops abruptly to make a jump shot.

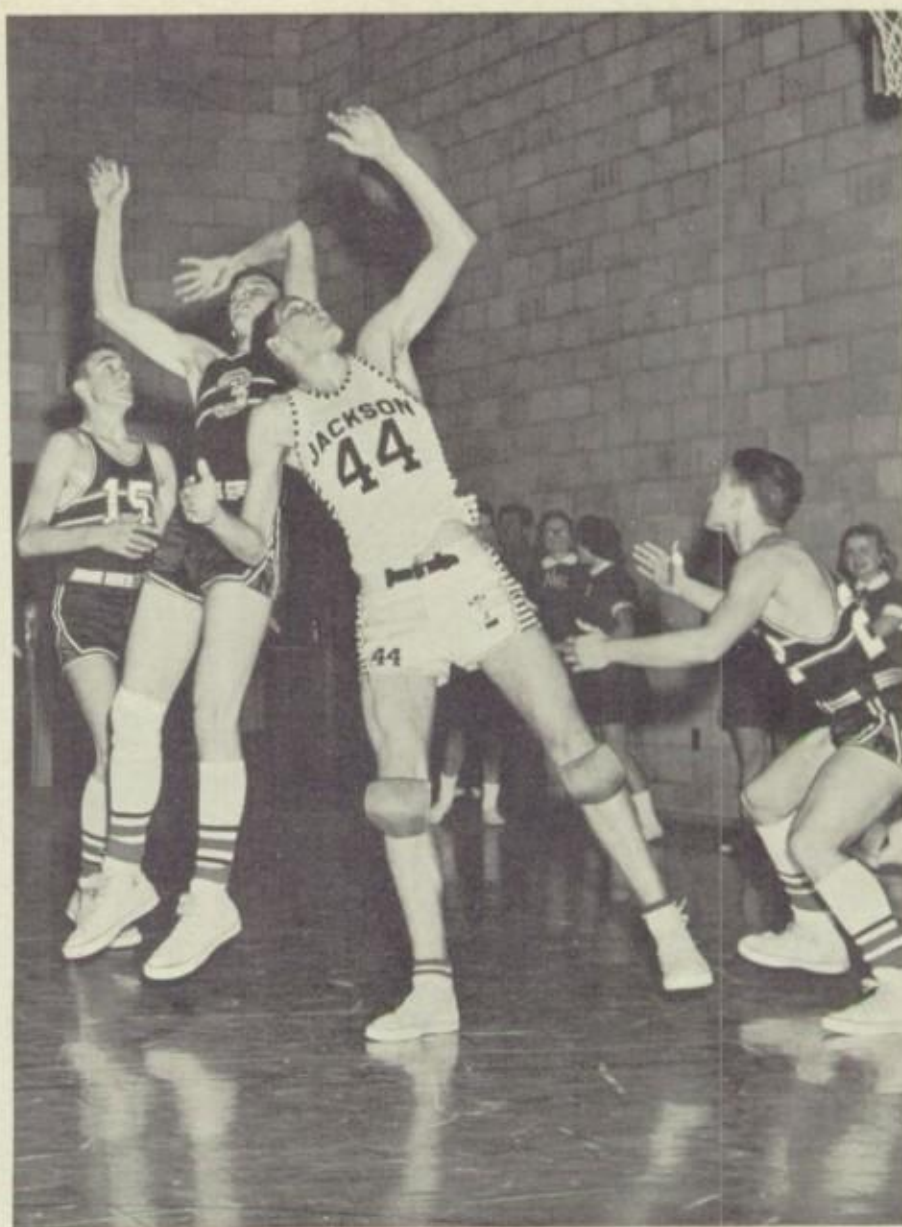

Both teams may be good on rebounds, but this is ridiculous!

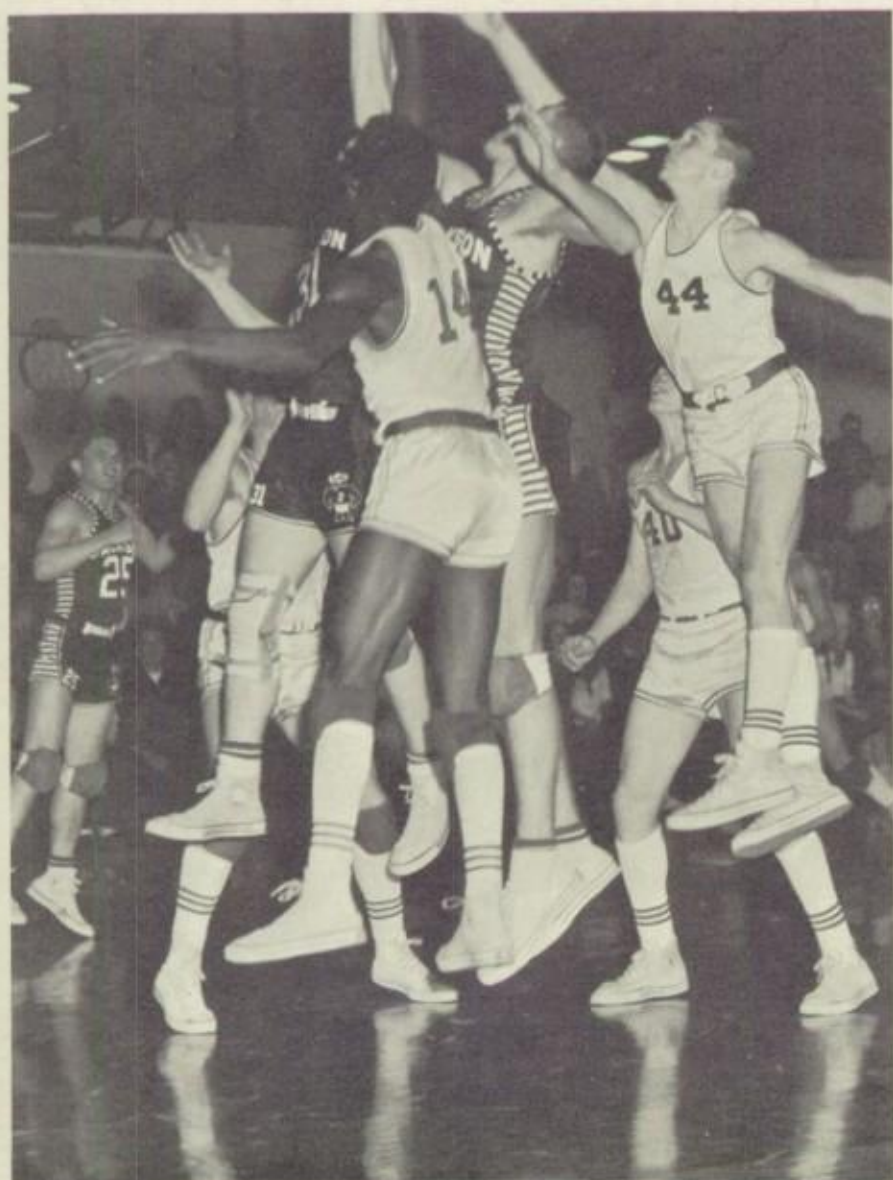

Mayhem erupts as Hostetler tries to squeeze one in before the quarter is called.

Davis foils Canton South's attempt for two points as Hite and Berndt move in to retrieve the ball.

"It's statue time!" appears to be the thought of both Davis and Northwest's No. 3, but actually we caught this awkward pose as they missed a rebound.

The "ref" must be passing out goodies during intermission; really, this photograph comes from one of the most tense moments in the Jackson-Sandy Valley game.

Hite and Davis stay in under the basket as this Perry player and Berndt vie for the ball.

Davis taps the jump ball to his team mates to start the Jackson - Northwest game.

Fred Berndt puts it in for two points!

"What will I do with it now that I've got it?" asks Dave Hostetler as Eckert stands by.

NO! It's the ball you put in, Tim!

Like help!

Fred Berndt and Rich Davis team up to tap that rebound over to the anticipating Jim Leonard.

Coach Dale Haverstock praises the team for their work and the student body for their co-operation at the annual victory rally.

Davis has that sneaky look in his eye as he comes up behind this Canton South player.

Two points and the "V for Victory" signify that the Polar Bears have another game!

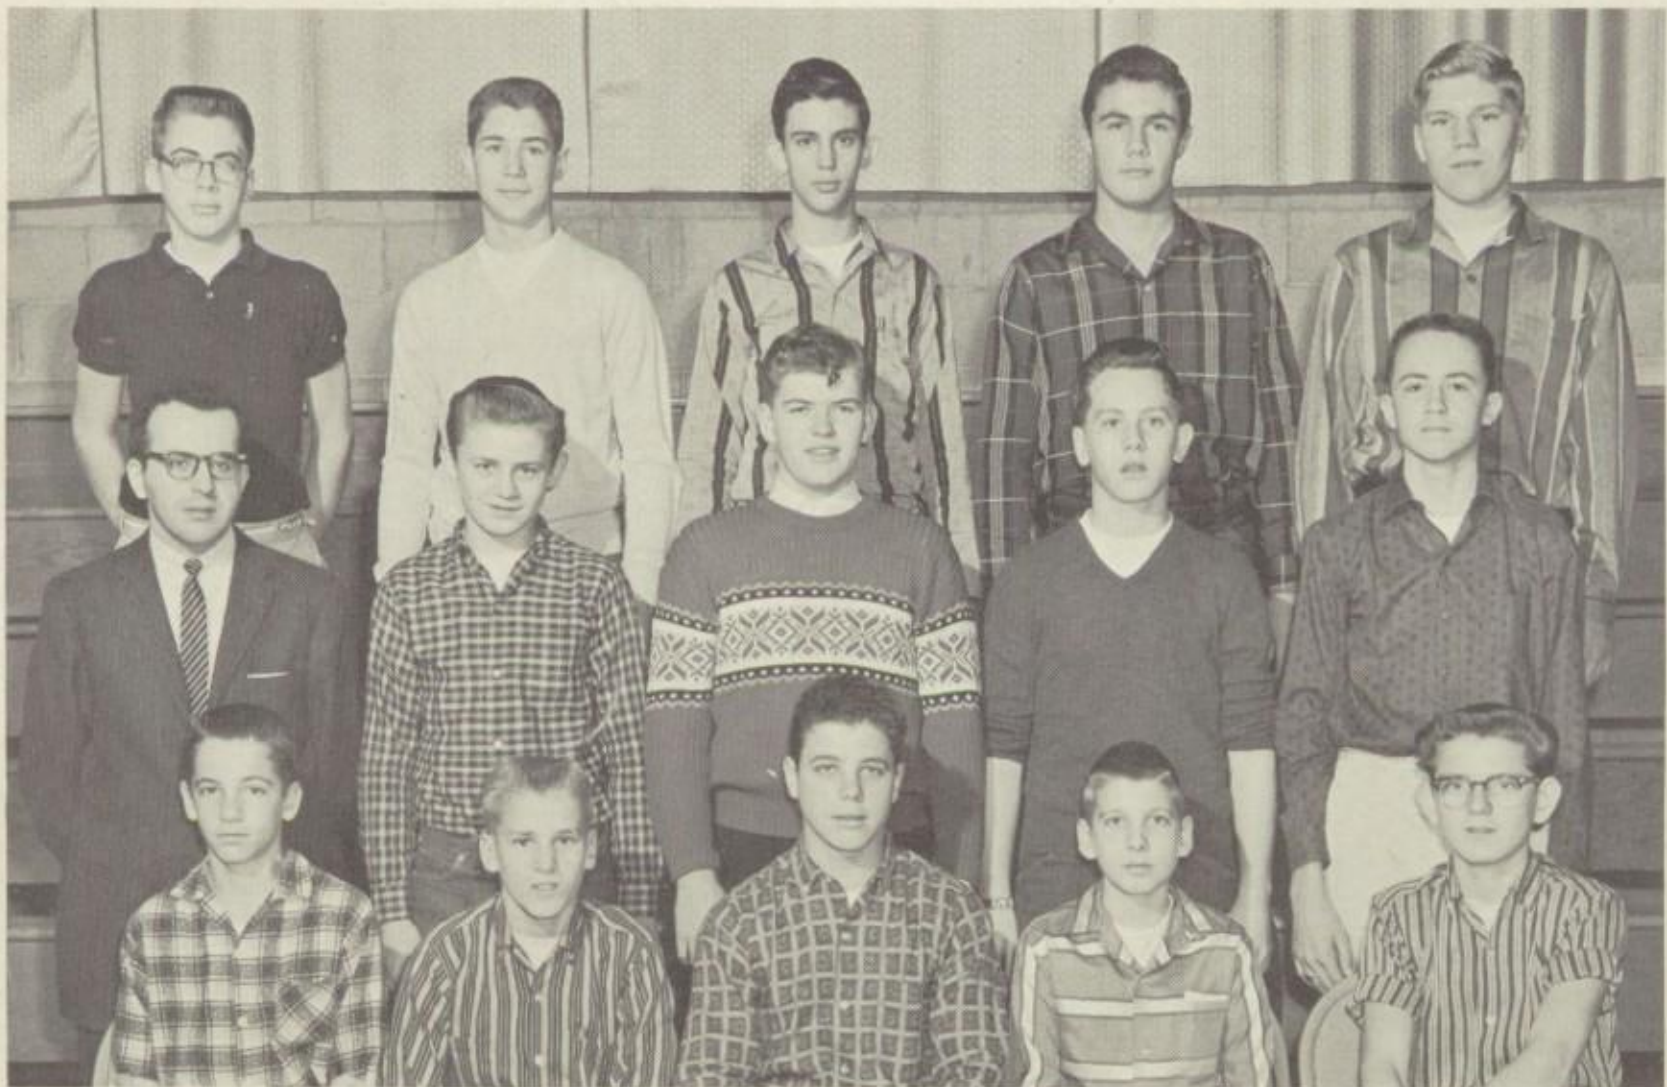

Tilton and his opponent stretch to tap that ball as their teammates move in to get it.

What can one say about twenty guys sitting on a stage except that they're our boys!

The majorettes form an arch and the student body cheers as our team comes marching in.

Students Grow Mentally, Emotionally, And Socially

At the beginning of the second semester we welcomed into our school a new general science teacher, Mr. Corwin Moser.

In the field of science, Tim Tilton and George Welty explain and demonstrate a project to the physics class.

The Senior girls meet at noon to rehash the day's experience and exchange ideas.

At one assembly we were greatly honored to have Fred Lowry, the famous whistler. Here Gayle Grant and John Flood join him to form a trio.

The boys in the industrial arts courses moved eagerly into the new shop building as soon as it was opened.

Junior and senior students of the home economic and shop classes enjoyed a fascinating tour of General Electric's Illuminating Building of Nela Park in Cleveland, Ohio.

Students spend their extra minutes in the Library doing research for their courses.

Climbing ropes are provided in the gym for all those who have a desire to "go ape".

Our two musketeers take advantage of "social hour" to settle a friendly disagreement.

Through snow, sleet, hail, or rain, may nothing keep these faithful fans from their posts!

Members of G.A.A. amused the students with their hilarious skits at the basketball rallies.

A person well-known and well-liked by all the students of Jackson is Mr. George Engel, Troup & Pluto's photographer who spends much time and energy working with the staff.

This year we are proud to announce Miss Jacksonite of 1960, Miss Judy Pettay. All senior girls having at least a 2.5 average were eligible for this honor. The senior class voted for the five girls they thought had done the most for the school. Troup & Pluto Studio chose the five most photogenic girls from the top ten in the poll. The final five were asked to answer nine questions that required personal and honest answers. The questions and answers were then sent to Mr. James Garner, of "Maverick" fame, who chose the winner.

Dear Bart,

I would like to thank you, Bart, and everyone concerned for selecting me as judge of your Outstanding Senior Contest.

Since all five of the entries seemed to deserve the title, the decision was a difficult one. I asked some of my fellow workers to assist me in the task of choosing a winner. Our choice was Judy Pettay. I would like to extend my congratulations to Judy and my best wishes to all the contestants, faculty and student body of Jackson Memorial High.

Sincerely,

JG/mm

April 8, 1960

This page is completing months of hard but enjoyable labor. Throughout the past months the members of the annual staff have experienced many headaches, along with much pleasure, as we have tried to make the 1960 SCOOP the best yearbook that Jackson has published. We hope it is one of which you will approve and be proud to show your friends.

I want to thank the administration, faculty, and student body for the assistance that you have given the staff during the year. I would also like to thank all of the members of the staff for their fine cooperation.

We would like to give special appreciation to Troup and Pluto Studio and the Seiple Lithograph Company for their aid and advice in helping us to make the 1960 SCOOP one that you will never forget.

Best of luck to the next year's staff. I hope that they will receive as many benefits from their work as we, the Senior members, have derived from ours.

Sincerely,
BARBARA CORBETT
Editor

Commencement

Mr. Lawrence, Mr. Gilmore, Rev. Harry Strauch, Rev. George Parkinson, and Mr. H. C. Sauder stand in honor of the 1960 graduation class during the commencement exercises which were held on June 3, 1960.

Seniors led by two underclassmen file into the auditorium to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance".

Bob Webster and Ed Smith usher the seniors to their final seats in Jackson's auditorium.

The seniors solemnly take their places as the graduating ceremonies begin.

The invocation, welcome, appreciation, and farewell addresses are moments of sincere seriousness in this program.

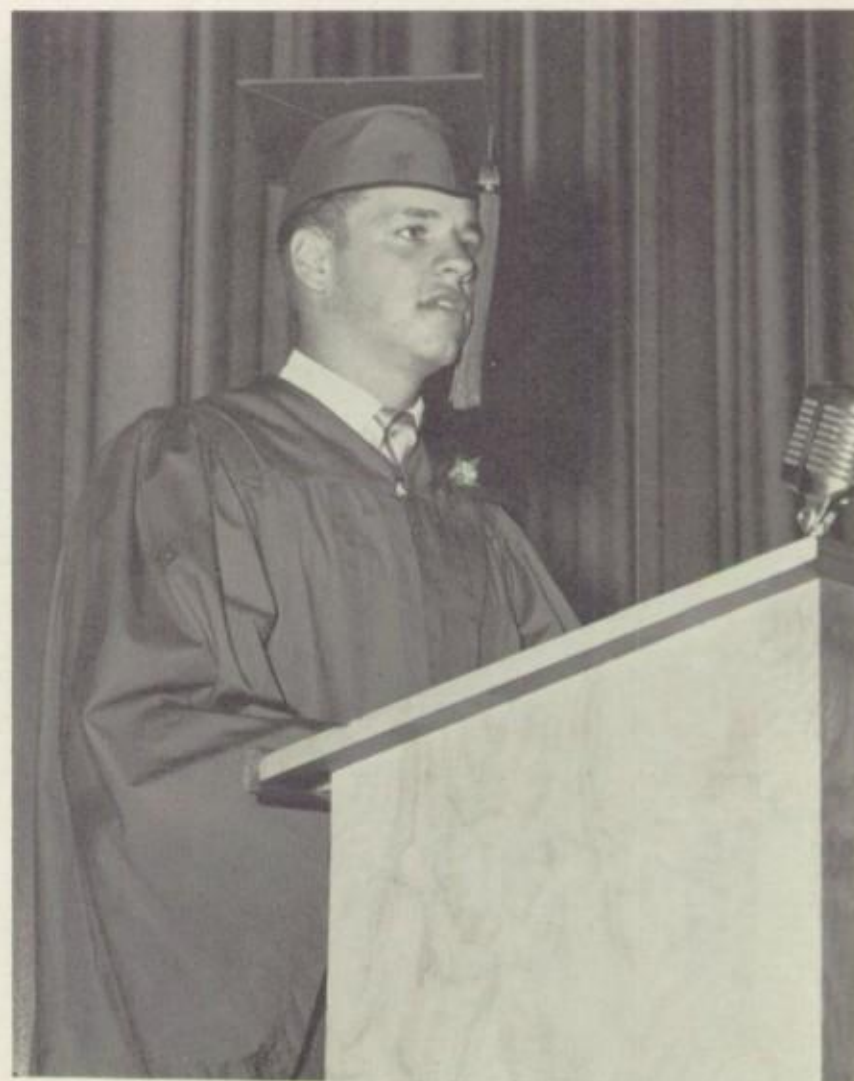

The Rev. Harry Strauch, pastor of St. Jacobs Lutheran Church, opens the exercises with invocation.

Barbara Zintz, Co-Salutatorian, welcomes those present on behalf of the Senior Class of 1960.

Barbara Corbett, Co-Salutatorian, sincerely extends appreciation from the Senior Class to all of the people who have made our education possible.

Tim Tilton, Valedictorian, solemnly addresses the audience as he says a final farewell from the Class of 1960 to all of their friends, relatives, classmates, and faculty members.

Commencement

Don Stump provides music for the evening and Rev. Parkinson, the Class Address.

The audience listen as Don Stump makes his final appearance as a piano soloist at Jackson Memorial High School.

The Rev. George E. Parkinson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Canton, delivers an inspiring keynote class address, one that the Seniors will never forget.

The Long Awaited Moment Comes and Goes

The Seniors eagerly await the moment when each will have his diploma securely placed in his hand.

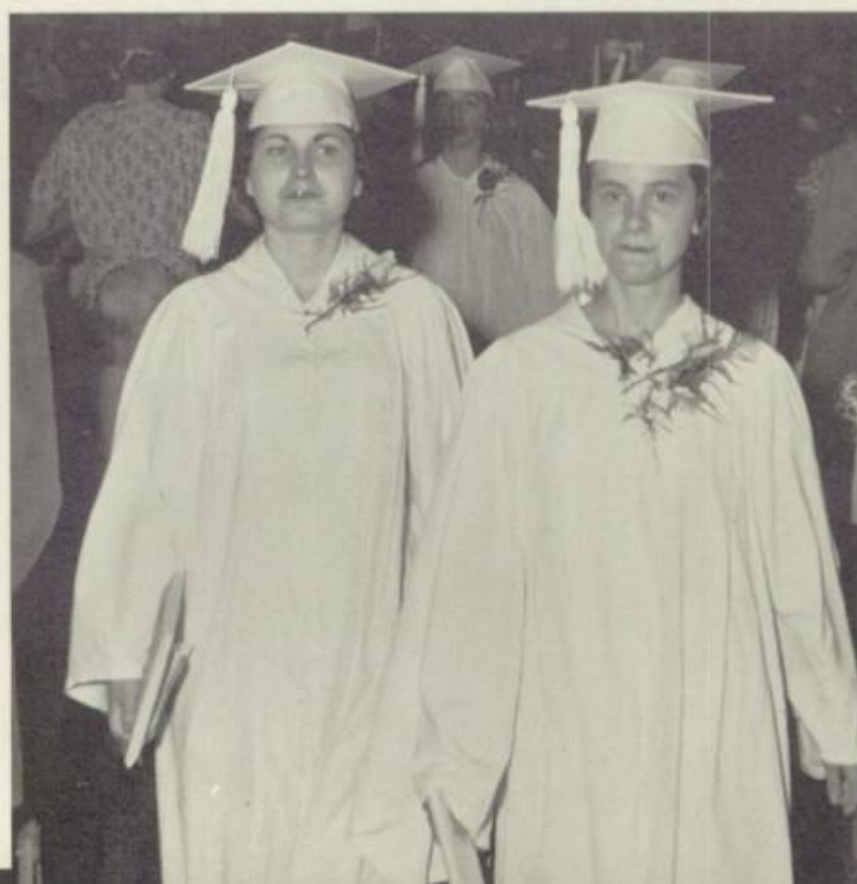

Eugene Reynolds smiles as Mr. Gilmore, president of the Jackson Memorial School Board, presents him with his diploma and congratulations.

Pat Drury wears an expression of achievement as she turns her tassel and becomes a proud alumni.

It's all over! The new alumni proudly but sadly leave the auditorium as the band plays the "War March of the Priests".

We Will Never Forget the "Aloha Luau"

Bonnie Callahan and Florence Furbee are adding to the Hawaiian mood of the evening with the leis they are wearing.

Janet Miller takes a few moments from dancing to photograph a few of her friends.

From the expressions on the faces you can tell that everyone is having a marvelous time.

These three young men seem to have lost their dates, or is it that they would rather gaze at the fountain alone together.

At intermission everyone lines up for refreshments.

Junior - Senior Prom

Those who attended the prom experienced an evening that they will never forget.

A few of the couples stop to rest and enjoy a bottle of pop. From the way it looks the rest is well needed.

Here some of the couples pause to visit for awhile and rest their feet.

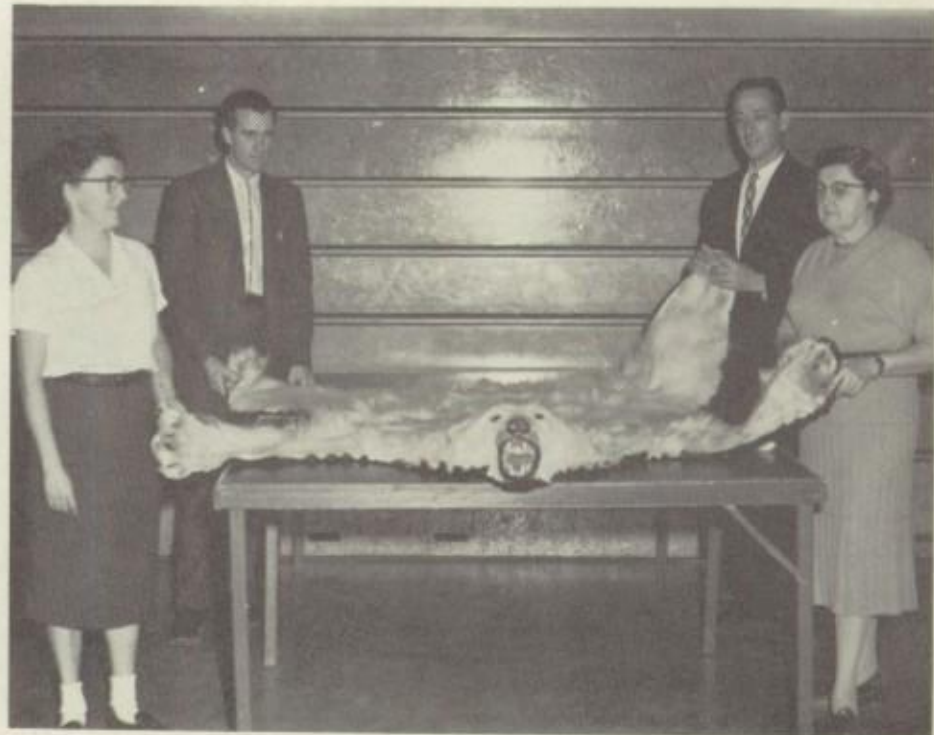

These couples seem to be having a real good time as they dance to the music of Dick Stevens and his orchestra.

Recreation Can Also Be Education

The Nazarene enters and disrupts the stoning party with the words, "Let him who is sinless cast the first stone."

The juniors presented "Shadow Of A Cross" on April 22 & 23, 1960. Mr. Anthony Rizzo was the director.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

In February the Juniors began rehearsals of their play, "Shadow of a Cross", the first dramatic class play presented at Jackson High. The first rehearsals were accompanied by the usual "shenanigans" but as the production date neared, the play shaped up well. It was presented on the evenings of April twenty-second and twenty-third.

The play opens on a scene of the gates of Jerusalem with Joel, a young Jewish silversmith, returning home from Joppa. He learns that during his absence a teacher (Christ) with a great following among the people has appeared. Joel and Judas of Iscariot, a follower of the teacher, plot to force Him to lead a rebellion against Rome. They betray Him to Caiaphas who takes Him to Pilate. There the mob turns against Him and causes Him to be crucified. Joel's plot fails and he determines to take revenge upon Paulus, a Roman soldier with whom he has had a violent argument. When they meet, the Lord reveals Himself as a blinding light and converts both of them.

Tim Tilton, a senior member of the team, has just completed a beautiful curve ball and is watching for the strike.

Some fast action is displayed by several of Jackson's players for they realize that every second can make the difference between a victory or a defeat.

George Welty demonstrates his batting skill for a few of his teammates (and the girls' gym class) during a practice session.

TRACK

As any sports fan knows, it takes a long period of time to establish a successful team. The track team is the newest member of Jackson's athletic family. This year's season saw many advances over the past years. More boys came out for the team this year than ever before. Their spirit was high and their efforts showed it. The school records in eight of the fourteen events in which these boys participated were broken, many of them more than once. The broad jump was broken by Pete Marinakis, and Vic Bertoni broke the shot record.

Mr. Steve can be very proud of the 1960 track team and the progress that his teams have made through the years.

Tim Jolliff is anticipating the last tense minutes before the gun is sounded.
